

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	x
List of Maps	xi
Preface	xii
List of Abbreviations	xiii
1 Introduction	1
1.1 Research Questions	3
1.2 Research Parameters	3
2 Background – Kent during the Roman Occupation	5
2.1 The Geology of Kent and the South East.....	5
2.2 The Roman Economy.....	7
2.2.1 Background	7
2.2.2 The Roman Imperial Economy: Making the Province Pay.....	10
2.2.3 The Roman Provincial Economy	11
2.2.4 Imperial Estates	12
2.3 Regional Background Overview	15
2.3.1 The Roman Occupation of Kent.....	15
2.3.2 Settlement in Occupied Kent.....	16
2.3.3 The Population of Occupied Kent	17
2.3.4 The Economy of Occupied Kent – Geography	19
2.3.5 The Economy of Occupied Kent – Chronology.....	20
2.3.6 The End of the Occupation in Kent.....	23
2.4 Industrial Activity during the Roman Occupation	25
2.5 Maritime Transport in the South East during the Roman Occupation	27
2.6 The Military Presence in Britain during the Roman Occupation.....	30
2.6.1 The Size of the Military Presence	30
2.6.2 Mechanisms of Command and Control.....	33
2.6.3 The Military in a Civilian Context	34
2.6.4 Military Infrastructure	36
3 Regional Analysis – The Weald	37
3.1 Key Data: Details of Primary Evidence Sites	37
3.1.1 Nature of the Evidence	37
3.1.2 Industrial Origins.....	38
3.1.3 Site Selection and Grading.....	39
3.1.4 Site List	41
3.2 Settlement in the Occupation Period Weald.....	48
3.3 Transport Infrastructure in the Weald during the Roman Occupation	48
3.4 The Iron Industry in the Weald during the Roman Occupation	50
3.5 Who Were the Workers in the State-Run Areas of the Wealden Iron Industry?.....	53
3.6 The Tile and Brick Industry in the Weald	55
4 Regional Analysis – Medway Valley	59
4.1 Key Data: Details of Primary Evidence Sites	59
4.1.1 Nature of the Evidence	59
4.1.2 Industrial Origins.....	61
4.1.3 Site Selection.....	61
4.1.4 Site List	63
4.2 The Medway Valley Ragstone Quarrying Industry.....	81
4.3 Where Were the Ragstone Quarries Located?.....	84

4.3.1 Allington Quarry	85
4.3.2 Boughton Quarries	85
4.3.3 Dean Street Quarry	86
4.3.4 Quarry Wood, West Farleigh	89
4.3.5 Teston Quarry	89
4.3.6 Short Consideration of the Evidence.....	90
4.4 Who Were the Workers in the Medway Valley Ragstone Quarrying Industry?	90
4.5 Transporting the Quarried Ragstone	92
4.5.1 Where Was the Ragstone Transported?	93
4.5.2 Was Riverine Hydraulic Infrastructure Used in the Medway Valley?.....	94
4.5.3 What Would a Typical Journey Look Like?	97
5 Discussion – Interpreting the Evidence	101
5.1 The Role of the State.....	101
5.1.1 Large Scale Industry.....	102
5.1.2 What Role Could the State Have Played in Roman Industry?	102
5.1.3 The State Presence in the Weald.....	103
5.1.4 The State Presence in the Medway Valley	106
5.1.5 Synthesis.....	109
5.2 Change and Continuity in the Extractive Industries of the Occupied South East.....	109
5.2.1 The Late Iron Age/ Occupation Transition.....	110
5.2.2 Change and Continuity in the Weald.....	110
5.2.3 Change and Continuity in the Medway Valley.....	111
5.2.4 Synthesis.....	111
6 Conclusion	115
Bibliography	117
Appendices	135
Appendix A – Building Materials Sourced in Kent and the South East During the Roman Occupation	135
Appendix B – Sources of Data for the Classis Britannica	139
Appendix C – Roman Maritime Technology	140