

Contents

List of Figures	viii
List of Tables.....	xvi
Abstract.....	xviii
1. Introduction: coin hoards and medieval archaeology	1
2. Approaches to coin hoards: theory and practice.....	3
2.1 Laying foundations: coins, hoards, money, value, treasure	3
2.2 The motives of hoarders.....	4
2.3 Approaches to hoarding I: content-driven study	5
2.3.1 Typological approaches	5
2.3.2 ‘Applied’ methods	6
2.3.2.1 Chronological structure	6
2.3.2.2 Regional structure.....	7
2.3.2.3 Nominal structure	7
2.3.3 Non-numismatic contents.....	7
2.4 Approaches to hoarding II: context-driven studies	7
2.4.1 ‘Feature’/depositional context.....	8
2.4.2 ‘Site’/landscape context	8
2.5 Approaches to coin hoards: a summary	8
3. Methods and problems: the Coin hoards of medieval England and Wales database	10
3.1 Framing the study: definitions and parameters	10
3.2 Chronological periodisation	11
3.3 Database arrangement	11
3.3.1 Hoard summary	12
3.3.2 Hoard contents.....	12
3.3.3 Non-numismatic object summary	12
3.3.4 Container summary	12
3.3.5 Context summary	13
3.4 Populating the database: source material	13
3.4.1 Checklists	13
3.4.2 Hoard reports.....	13
3.4.3 Online archaeological databases	13
3.4.4 Archaeological journals.....	13
3.4.5 Antiquarian and archival sources	13
3.4.6 Historic Ordnance Survey mapping	14
3.4.7 Museum collections.....	14
3.4.8 Personal correspondence	14
3.5 Data quality ratings	14
3.6 Augmenting the evidence: findspot characterisation.....	14
3.6.1 Historic mapping	15
3.6.2 Archaeological records.....	15
3.7 Archaeological source criticism: formation processes and data bias	16
3.7.1 Record formation processes I: the burial stage	16
3.7.2 Record formation processes II: the discovery stage.....	17
3.7.2.1 Agricultural work.....	17
3.7.2.2 Archaeological investigations.....	17
3.7.2.3 Building work	18
3.7.2.4 Grave digging	21
3.7.2.5 Metal detecting	22
3.7.2.6 Other discovery circumstances.....	25
3.7.2.7 Unknown circumstances.....	26

3.7.3 Record formation processes III: the registration stage.....	26
3.7.4 Record formation processes: concluding remarks.....	28
4. Seeing the bigger picture: the pattern of hoarding in England and Wales, c.973-1544	29
4.1 The pattern of hoarding in England and Wales, c.973-1544.....	29
4.1.1 Phase A: Late Anglo-Saxon coin hoards, c.973-1066.....	29
4.1.2 Phase B: Anglo-Norman coin hoards, 1066-1158.....	31
4.1.3 Phase C: High medieval coin hoards, 1158-1279.....	33
4.1.4 Phase D: Late medieval coin hoards, 1279-1544.....	33
4.2 Patterns in perspective I: coin hoards and monetary trends.....	36
4.2.1 Hoards and the size of the currency.....	36
4.2.2 Hoards and single coin finds.....	37
4.3 Patterns in perspective II: coin hoards and socio-economic geographies.....	38
4.3.1 Hoards and population.....	41
4.3.1.1 Benchmark 1: Domesday Book, 1086.....	41
4.3.1.2 Benchmark 2: England c.1290.....	42
4.3.1.3 Benchmark 3: The 1377 poll tax.....	43
4.3.2 Hoards and the distribution of assessed wealth.....	44
4.3.2.1 Benchmark 1: Domesday Book, 1086.....	45
4.3.2.2 Benchmark 2: The 1334 lay subsidy.....	45
4.3.2.3 Benchmark 3: The 1524-5 exchequer lay subsidies.....	46
4.3.3 Hoards and commerce.....	47
4.3.3.1 Hoards and towns.....	47
4.3.3.2 Hoards and transport infrastructure: road, river, and sea.....	49
4.4 Patterns in perspective III: coin hoards and conflict.....	52
4.4.1 The Norman Conquest and the ‘Harrying of the North’.....	52
4.4.2 The twelfth century ‘Anarchy’.....	57
4.4.3 The Scottish Wars of Independence.....	57
4.5 Discussion: interpreting macro-scale patterning in coin hoards.....	59
5. Treasured possessions? The contents of coin hoards	62
5.1 The numismatic elements of coin hoards, c.973-1544.....	62
5.1.1 Nominal structures.....	62
5.1.1.1 Phase A: Late Anglo-Saxon coin hoards, c.973-1066.....	64
5.1.1.2 Phase B: Anglo-Norman coin hoards, 1066-1158.....	66
5.1.1.3 Phase C: High medieval coin hoards, 1158-1279.....	69
5.1.1.4 Phase D: Late medieval coin hoards, 1279-1544.....	71
5.1.1.5 Discussion.....	99
5.1.2 Age structures.....	100
5.1.2.1 Phases A and B: Late Anglo-Saxon and Anglo-Norman coin hoards, c.973-1158.....	101
5.1.2.2 Phase C: High medieval coin hoards, 1158-1279.....	109
5.1.2.3 Phase D: Late medieval coin hoards, 1279-1544.....	117
5.1.2.4 Discussion.....	143
5.1.3 Regional structures.....	143
5.1.3.1 Phase A: Late Anglo-Saxon coin hoards, c.973-1066.....	143
5.1.3.2 Phase B: Anglo-Norman coin hoards, 1066-1158.....	146
5.1.3.3 Phase C: High medieval coin hoards, 1158-1279.....	149
5.1.3.4 Phase D: Late medieval coin hoards, 1279-1544.....	156
5.1.3.5 Discussion.....	164
5.2 The non-numismatic elements of coin hoards, c.973-1544.....	164
5.2.1 The incidence of non-numismatic objects.....	165
5.2.2 Coveting the precious things? Objects and economic value.....	165
5.2.3 Sending a message: status signifiers and symbolic values.....	168
5.2.4 Faith and fortune: religious and magical objects.....	170
5.2.5 Personal pieces? Objects, emotions, and memories.....	172
5.3 Coins beyond money?.....	174
6. Coins in context: the depositional circumstances of medieval coin hoards	177
6.1 Pots of gold? The archaeology of hoard containers.....	177
6.1.1 The incidence of containers.....	177

6.1.2 Securing treasures? Containers and economic value	180
6.1.3 Jars and jugs, boxes and bags: patterns in container forms.....	182
6.1.3.1 Bags and purses	182
6.1.3.2 Jugs and pitchers.....	183
6.1.3.3 Rouleaux.....	184
6.1.3.4 Jars and cooking vessels.....	185
6.1.3.5 Boxes and chests.....	185
6.1.3.6 Sheet metal	186
6.1.3.7 Bottles.....	186
6.1.3.8 Barrels, canisters, and other cylindrical storage containers.....	186
6.1.3.9 Bowls, cups, and mugs	187
6.1.3.10 Animal remains.....	187
6.1.3.11 Hollow stones	188
6.1.3.12 Trifoliate vessels.....	188
6.1.3.13 Tripod ewers	188
6.1.3.14 Personal ornaments.....	188
6.1.4 Discussion: containers and choices in medieval England and Wales.....	189
6.2 Landscapes of deposition: a contextual archaeology of coin hoards	190
6.2.1 Cash in the attic: coin hoards and settlement	190
6.2.2 Prayerful pennies: coin hoards and religious space.....	192
6.2.3 A step into the unknown? Coin hoards and ancient monuments.....	195
6.2.4 Fields and forests, coasts and caves: coin hoards and the medieval landscape.....	197
6.2.5 Monetary miscellanea: coin hoards from other medieval sites.....	199
6.3 Discussion: coin hoards and the evidence of archaeological contexts.....	200
7. Conclusion	202
7.1 Where and when have coin hoards been recovered, and what factors condition these distributions?.....	202
7.2 What do patterns in the temporal and spatial incidence of coin hoards tell us about hoarding behaviour?	202
7.3 What patterns, if any, are visible in the numismatic elements of medieval coin hoards, and what do they tell us about hoarding behaviour?	202
7.4 What non-numismatic objects, if any, are found in medieval coin hoards, and what do they tell us about hoarding behaviour?.....	203
7.5 What types of containers, if any, were used to store coin hoards, and what might they reveal about the processes of hoard formation and deposition?	203
7.6 What patterns, if any, are visible in the archaeological contexts of coin hoards, and what do they tell us about hoarding behaviour?	204
7.7 Legacy and future work	204
8. Bibliography	206
8.1 Printed primary sources.....	206
8.2 Secondary sources.....	207

Appendix 1 is available as an accompanying download