

Contents

List of Figures	ix
Abbreviations	xiii
Abstract	xv
Introduction	1
Historiography	4
1. The Creation of Memory: Law-less Staffordshire?	11
‘Real’ barrows.....	12
Barrows associated with inhumations in Staffordshire.....	12
Barrows without evidence of associated inhumations in Staffordshire.....	13
Staffordshire barrow sites – early excavations	13
Barrow forms	13
Barrow composition.....	14
Place-names: hlāw , beorg and crūg	15
Barrows: major place-names: beorg , hlāw and crūg	16
Naming hlāws	17
Naming hlāws : summary	19
Minor place-names: hlāw field-names in Pirehill	20
Local study 1: Blurton	20
Local Study 2: Aston and Burston.....	21
Local Study 3: Catholme	22
Exploiting meaning, establishing memory: the invention of local landscapes.....	25
Creation of meanings	25
Creation of ancestors	25
Biographies.....	26
Conclusion: The work of the dead.....	27
2. The Reality of Saintly Stories in the Landscape: Staffordshire’s ‘Worthless’ Saints	29
Æthelred and Æthelflaed	29
The saints of Pirehill and Staffordshire	33
Æthelflaed and Wærburh	33
Wulfhad and Ruffin	37
The Wulfhad and Ruffin story in the Staffordshire landscape.....	39
Beorhthelm	43
Using the dead: their power and their memory	47
3. Public and Permanent Statements: The ‘Rickety Arched Frames’ of Staffordshire	51
Provenance.....	52
Production.....	53
The Staffordshire corpus	55
Trent Valley Group	55
Dove Valley Group	56
Pennine Fringes Group	56
Dating	57
Regional influences.....	58
Stone sculpture and identity	60
Memorialisation and manorialisation	62
Discussion.....	64

4. The Thegnly Moment: An Anatomy of Estate Centres	69
Background: multiple estates.....	69
Thegns and their estates.....	70
Methodology: an anatomy of a thegnly estate centre in Staffordshire	71
Defining the landscape: townships	73
Ecclesiastical developments	74
The Domesday Survey evidence	74
Taxatio Ecclesiastica.....	76
Place-names: OE tūn.....	77
Case studies	79
Darlaston	80
Madeley	83
Mucklestone.....	83
Standon	86
Blithfield	87
Colton	89
Wolstanton	90
Discussion: wateriness and life on the e(d)g(e).....	94
Trentham	94
Stoke	94
Church Eaton	94
Seeking out the e(d)g(e)	94
Discussion: a commonality of topographies.....	98
5. A 10th-Century Family: Kinship in Practice in the Staffordshire Landscape	101
A 10th-century continuity?	103
The family Wulf and their religious houses.....	104
Conclusion	110
Conclusion	113
Bibliography	117
Primary Sources: printed	117
Primary sources: not in print	117
Secondary Sources.....	117