

Contents

|                                                                                                                                                                                                     |            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Tom James at the University of Winchester.....                                                                                                                                                      | ix         |
| Tom James: An Appreciation .....                                                                                                                                                                    | x          |
| Contributors .....                                                                                                                                                                                  | xiii       |
| Introduction.....                                                                                                                                                                                   | 1          |
| Amanda Richardson and Mark Allen                                                                                                                                                             |            |
| 1. Early Medieval Defences in Southern England.....                                                                                                                                          | 7   |
| David A. Hinton                                                                                                                                                                              |            |
| 2. Hamwic and the Origins of Wessex Revisited .....                                                                                                                                          | 29  |
| Barbara Yorke                                                                                                                                                                                |            |
| 3. A Different Perspective on the Thirteenth-Century King's Chapel Pavement at Clarendon Palace.....                                                                                         | 41  |
| Mary South                                                                                                                                                                                   |            |
| 4. King Edward I and the Water-Gate at the Tower of London .....                                                                                                                             | 59  |
| Jeremy A. Ashbee                                                                                                                                                                             |            |
| 5. The Palaces and Residential Buildings of the Medieval Bishops of Winchester, c.1300–c.1500.....                                                                                           | 75  |
| John Hare                                                                                                                                                                                    |            |
| 6. The Effect of the Black Death of 1348–49 on the Fair of St Giles, Winchester .....                                                                                                        | 95  |
| Paula Arthur                                                                                                                                                                                 |            |
| 7. Catastrophe and Ceramics: A preliminary assessment of the impact of the Black Death of 1348–50on pottery production in England.....                                                  | 107 |
| Phil Marter                                                                                                                                                                                  |            |
| 8. Balancing Military Ambitions with Civilian Interests: The English Occupation of Normandy, 1417 to 1450 .....                                                                              | 117 |
| Anne Curry                                                                                                                                                                                   |            |
| 9. The Late-Medieval Inns of Hampshire: Their Architecture and Plan-Form.....                                                                                                                | 123 |
| Edward Roberts                                                                                                                                                                               |            |
| 10. The People Project: the residents of Southampton 1485–1603.....                                                                                                                          | 137 |
| Cheryl Butler                                                                                                                                                                                |            |
| 11. Gender, space and status in the sixteenth-century English Deer Park: with reference to theFramlingham Park Game Roll (1515–19) and George Penruddock's Ranger's Book (1572–75)..... | 147 |
| Amanda Richardson                                                                                                                                                                            |            |
| 12. 'Disorders in Religion': The Misbehaving Laity of Elizabethan Winchester .....                                                                                                           | 159 |
| Susan K. Parkinson                                                                                                                                                                           |            |
| 13. Two College Gardens: Recent investigations in Wadham and Merton Colleges, Oxford.....                                                                                                    | 169 |
| John Steane                                                                                                                                                                                  |            |
| 14. Brief Lives? Artefacts, memory and the afterlife of medieval monuments .....                                                                                                             | 187 |
| Christopher M. Gerrard                                                                                                                                                                       |            |
| 15. Clarendon House, Wiltshire: Its evolutionary details .....                                                                                                                               | 201 |
| James Ayres                                                                                                                                                                                  |            |

Contents

|                                                                                                      |            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 16. God's House Chapel, the French Church, and Remembering Southampton's 'Huguenot' Past..... | 213 |
| Andrew Spicer                                                                                 |            |
| 17. The Administration and Organisation of the Census in Nineteenth Century Winchester.....   | 233 |
| Mark Allen                                                                                    |            |
| 18. A Bibliography of the Published Works of Professor Emeritus Tom Beaumont James.....       | 251 |