

Contents

Preface .....	vii
Abstract .....	ix
1 Introduction .....	1
Nigel Mills
2 Interpretation Frameworks: principles and practice .....	5
Nigel Mills
3 Concrete for the Limes: developing the Interpretation Framework for the Dutch section of the Lower German Limes .....	23
Tom Hazenberg and Catherine Visser
4 An exhibition of their own: designing a family-friendly experience at Birdoswald Roman fort .....	41
Andrew J. Roberts
5 Castellum Hoge Woerd (Utrecht-NL): a revived Roman fort located in a local community .....	55
Erik Graafstal
6 DOMunder in Utrecht: an underground discovery .....	67
Tijn Pieren, Freek Hasselaar and Nigel Mills
7 Viminacium: public presentation and visitor research .....	77
Snežana Golubović
8 The ALAPP project: digital resource development for new audiences .....	89
Patricia Weeks and Erik Dobat
9 Roman frontiers in the UK: assessing the messages communicated by Roman Places in Britain .....	101
Richard Hingley
10 Communicating the Frontiers of the Roman Empire World Heritage Site in Bavaria (Germany): new approaches and old errors .....	121
Christof Flügel
11 Between archaeology and cliché: a study of recreations and re-enactment of the Roman military .....	135
Boris A. N. Burandt
12 Hadrian's Cavalry: strengthening public presentation through partnership .....	145
Bill Griffiths
13 A change of pace .....	153
Kevin Booth and Mark Nixon
14 Turma! Hadrian's Cavalry Charge in Carlisle .....	163
Mike Bishop and Nigel Mills
15 Public engagement with World Heritage: an assessment from Hadrian's Wall .....	177
Rob Collins and Kerry Shaw
Contributor biographies .....	187