

CONTENTS

Figures	7
Tables, Graphs and Maps	13
Abbreviations	14
Contributors	15
Preface and Acknowledgements – Frederick A. Cooper	17
Editorial Note – Diane Fortenberry	23
Abstract	25
PART I: NEW STUDIES AT THE PALACE OF NESTOR
1. The Minnesota Pylos Project: Investigations and Results, 1990–98 – Frederick A. Cooper	29
Excavation Protocol	29
The Palace Traverse	31
The Architectural Study of the Palace and Ancillary Buildings	34
Finds	82
Scientific Analyses	86
Topographical Survey and Digitised Elevation Model of the Englianos Ridge	87
Aerial Photographs	115
2. Hydraulic Engineering on the Englianos Ridge: Evidence for Pre-LH IIIB Palaces – Frederick A. Cooper	135
Knossian Parallels	135
Pylion Drains as Evidence for Early Floor Levels	137
The Middle Helladic Palace A	139
The Late Helladic I–II Palace B	144
The Late Helladic IIIB–IIIC Palace	150
3. Modelling Movement and Use Patterns within the Palace of Nestor: A GIS/Space Syntax Approach – Todd M. Brenningmeyer	155
Space Syntax Theory	156
Architectural Analysis of the Palace	156
Social Interpretations of Architectural Change	160
Conclusions	163
4. Enclosed Gardens in Courts 42 and 47 – Anne B. Hollond	165
The Architecture of Courts 42 and 47	165
The Courts as Garden Spaces	167
Precedents and Conclusions	169
5. Bronze Age Quarrying: A Provenance Study – Joshua N. Distler	171
The Geology of the Southwest Peloponnese	171
The Quarries	172
The Problem of Transportation	179

The Minnesota Pylos Project, 1990–98

Lithic Analysis	181
Major Element Geochemistry	186
Isotope Analysis	188
Conclusions	191
6. Discarded Chipped Stone from the Palace of Nestor – George Otto Marquardt	195
Catalogue	196
7. Small Finds from the 1990–98 Excavations – Eleni M. Konstantinidi-Syvridi	213
Metal Objects	213
Stone Objects	215
Fired Clay Objects	216
Organic Remains	218
General Remarks	219
Catalogue	220
8. Post-Bronze Age Architecture and Stratigraphy – Todd M. Brenningmeyer	225
Post-Bronze Age Stratigraphy	225
Post-Bronze Age Architecture	240
Summary	253
9. Post-Bronze Age Pottery – Shawn A. Ross	257
Dark Age Wares (Nichoria I–III)	258
Late Dark Age through Early Archaic Wares	260
Late Archaic, Classical or Hellenistic Black-slipped Wares	260
Hellenistic or Roman Red-slipped Wares	260
Late Roman Plain Ridged Ware	261
Medieval Pottery	261
Conclusions	262
Catalogue	262
10. Post-Bronze Age Industrial Waste and Bronze Casting – Caitlin Downey	275
Description of the Terracotta Fragments	275
Possible Interpretations	276
Dating the Fragments	279

PART II: THE ARCHITECTURE OF THE PALACE OF NESTOR – Michael C. Nelson

1. The Palace at Englianos	283
A Brief Description of the LH IIIB Palace	284
The Published Chronology	289
2. Building Materials	293
Stone	293
Mudbrick	294
Wood	294
3. Building Methods	297
Foundations	297
Block Masonry Construction	303
Pier-wall Construction	329
Rubble Construction	345
4. Building History	349
Masonry Development at Englianos	349
Comparisons with Minoan Masonry	351
The Development of the Englianos Hilltop	352
Appendix A: Terracotta Building Elements	367
Appendix B: Clamp Cuttings in Ashlar Blocks	371
Appendix C: Analysis of Earth Material	373
Bibliography	379
State Plans	385
Index	419