

Contents

Introduction to Innovative Approaches to Archaeology	1
Emanuele Prezioso and Marcella Giobbe
Part 1 Investigating Materiality and Material Interactions	3
1. Cognition as Choreography: The Relationship between Eye Movements and the Morphology of a Jōmon Flame-Style Pot	5
Paul Louis March and Frédéric Vallée-Tourangeau
2. Materiality and the Mind: The Impact of Object Handling Sessions on the Wellbeing of Young Adults	17
Catherine O'Brien
3. The Materiality of Perforated Human Teeth and Ivory Skeuomorphs in the European Upper Palaeolithic	29
Ivy Notterpek
4. Constructing 'Plantiness' in Iron Age Wessex	45
Molly Masterson
5. The Iconography of Linen Body Armour in Greek Vase Paintings: An Attempt to Reconstruct a Linothorax	57
Justine Diemke
Part 2 The Archaeologies of Colonial Encounters	67
6. Women's Ship Graffiti in Ayşe Kadın Mosque, Mordoğan, İzmir	69
Günce Pelin Öçgüden
7. The Process of Cultural Exchange in the Northwest of the Iberian Peninsula in Roman Age: The Study of Pottery Collections in the Lugo Area (Galicia, Spain)	81
Sara Barbazán Domínguez and Hugo Lozano Hermida
Part 3 Ancient Landscapes and Matters of Scaling	93
8. Using Open Spatial Data to Investigate the Importance of Salmon Streams in the Indigenous Cultural Landscapes of Southwest Alaska	95
Jonathan S. Lim and Gonzalo J. Linares Matás
9. In the Shadow of the Mountain: The Funerary Landscape of Pre-Roman Abruzzi (Italy)	109
Elena Scarsella
10. Hollow Lakedaimon as Times Goes By: Rise and Fall of the Eurotas Valley in the Mycenaean Age	119
Stefano Ruzza
11. Through the Eyes of the Mariners: A New Approach to the Understanding of Hellenistic and Roman Harbours of the Mediterranean	129
Ioannis Nakas
12. "Hic sunt... canes". Cynocephali at the end of the world: The Ancient Greeks' relationship with the border of civilisation in relation to Egypt and India	147
Giuseppe Delia	