

Table of Contents

List of Figures and Tables	v
Introduction Alice M. Choyke	1
Interpreting Urban Animal Contexts
What Makes a Medieval Urban Animal Bone Assemblage Look Urban? Reflections on Feature Types and Recurrent Patterns from Lower Austria and Vienna Günther Karl Kunst	9
Like a Headless Chicken: Meaning, Medium and Context in Medieval Urban Taphonomy László Bartosiewicz	19
Horseflesh and Beaver Pelts: Aspects of Faunal Studies in Medieval Novgorod and its Region Mark Maltby	27
The Diet of Ipswich from the Middle Saxon through the Medieval Periods Pam J. Crabtree	35
Animals as Symbol and Urban Reality
Dogs in Church Gerhard Jaritz	43
Pigs in Medieval Cities: Saint Anthony's Unusual Attribute Laura Fenelli	52
Animals as Presents in Late-Medieval Livonia Anu Mänd	59
Norm and Practice and Urban Animals
Oxen, Pigs and Sheep in the Medieval City: Analysis of Regulations Concerning Domestic Animals in Statutes of Medieval Dalmatian Towns Hrvoje Kekez	69
All the Priests' Horses and all the Priests' Hens...: Animals in the Households of Late Medieval Hungarian Urban Clergy Katalin Szende	77
"Drunkenness is the mother of forgetfulness, anger causes injuries": Animal Welfare in Late-Medieval English Urban Society Briony Aitchison	85
Suburban Husbandry: Animals in the Landscape of Trim, County Meath, Ireland Fiona Beglane	94
Domestic and Wild Animals in Urban Settings
Faunal Exploitation Patterns in Urban Settlements in Medieval Moldavia Luminita Bejenaru	103
Animals in Medieval Urban Lives: York as a Case Study Terry O'Connor	115

Animaltown: Beasts in Medieval Urban Space

Animals in Italian Medieval Towns: From Late Antiquity to the Late Middle Ages Frank Salvadori	129
Urban Jungle? Wild Mammals in Medieval Towns Aleksander Pluskowski	146
Animals and the Urban Elite
What is a Peacock Doing in a Medieval City? Analysing Visual Representations of Animals in Urban Space in the Late Middle Ages Isabella Nicka	161
“... For I have brought to you the fugitive animals of the desert”: Animals and Representations of the Constantinopolitan Imperial Authority in Two Poems by Manuel Philes Florin Leonte	179
Zooarchaeological Research from an Elite Urban Building in Medieval Durrës (Albania) Antonietta Buglione, Giovanni De Venuto and Barbara Sassi	188
Meat Consumption by the Christian Population in the Buda Castle Town District in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Centuries László Daróczy-Szabó and Márta Daróczy-Szabó	196
List of Contributors	207